Welcome

Greetings, Fellow Kinksters, and welcome to the Frank Jones center in Portsmouth, New Hampshire; we hope you have an enjoyable experience.

All of us differ in our abilities and skills, so please be mindful of those who might not be as agile or facile. If at any point you have a concern or need assistance, please don't hesitate to seek out a NELA Board member.

All spaces are fully accessible, and we are proud to offer you forty-one vendors in the Main room, as well as seven community/outreach groups and the MOB Service Station, in the secondary or food room, and assorted demonstrations in the glassed-in room.

Please join us for a meal and snack in the food room, the menu is below.

Be sure to keep in touch via our website nelaonline.org for upcoming events, classes and other timely announcements. Follow us on social media too! Twitter: @FetishFlea, Facebook: @NELAWeb and Fetlife: @NELAWeb

As with most community organizations, the lifeblood of our organization continues to be our volunteers. Everyone from the wristband checkers to the Board of NELA have devoted their time, energy and abilities to putting on the FFFs and carrying out the work of NELA, and we thank our volunteers for all their efforts.

NELA is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to making a safe place in the world for all leather / fetish / BDSM people through education, advocacy, and charitable giving. NELA uses the FFFs to not only provide in-event education and community group involvement, but also as the financial engines to support our work through the whole of the year. Please come by our table and get or update your NELA Associates Benefit Card (ABC), which entitles you to free or reduced-rate admission to NELA events throughout New England, discounts on merchandise from a number of vendors, and discounts to get into many other non-NELA events. Revenue from the NELA merchandise we offer in return for donations also supports our work, so if you purchase a NELA t-shirt, hoodie, or lunch box, you're helping to support our advocacy and charitable giving. We support other worthwhile organizations both at home and across the country like The Network/ La Red, AIDS Care Ocean State and the NCSF. We also have special programs like the 'Ayem Willing' Volunteer Travel Fund, which assists volunteers to travel to events and return with education which they might not otherwise be able to reach.

Your attendance at the FFF helps support our mission, and we thank you for joining us.

Rules

The New England Leather Alliance would like you to be aware of the following Rules of Conduct for the FFF:

Violation of any of these rules may be reason for ejection from event areas without refund.

Playing/scenes or any sexual activity in public is prohibited. Restrooms are considered public areas. Exposure of any bodily fluids or effluence, whether through sexual contact, piercing/cutting, soiled diaper changing, or other forms of play, is prohibited in all public areas.

You may briefly try out items for sale on yourself if you have permission from the vendor, provided you do not violate the previous rule.

Smoking is prohibited inside the hotel or event facilities. When smoking outside, please be courteous to others.

Food/drink is prohibited in vending areas.

Admission price is good for entry to all vending areas and classes for the day(s) that you purchased.

You must keep your wristband on at all times. Broken wristbands are void and cannot be used for entry.

Demos are first-come, first-serve to the limit of the room. Do not try to enter a room that is full.

This is an 18+ event. All minors will be refused entry, including infants.

Live animals and non-human pets are prohibited, with the exception of service animals.

Please respect the privacy of others. What you see here, stays here.

Cell Phone Policy

Cell phone use in public areas is discouraged, cell phones with uncovered camera lenses are strictly prohibited.

Demo areas: No visible or audible cell phones permitted.

Cell phones may be used in public spaces, including vending areas, specifically hallways, restaurants, lobby, elevator, etc - provided that the lens for any camera on the device is visibly covered and blocked from use. Absolutely no photography is permitted, unless you are an authorized and badged event photographer.

Any one observed using a cell phone in a public space will be subject to having staff and/or security checks to be sure cameras are covered and that no photos have been taken. Violation of our No Photography Policy and Covered Lens on Cell Phones can result in being removed from the event, and possibly banned from all future NELA events, as well as legal action being taken against the violator.

Dress Code

The Fetish Fair Fleamarket® does not allow nudity. We have always stressed courtesy and appropriate dress in public areas. "Sidewalk Friendly" attire is required, which is not the same as "street legal." "Legal" means a thong and pasties - we have always required a bit more to insure the comfort of all attendees. In all public areas, no bare butt cheeks, and no bare breasts or breasts covered only in Liquid Latex, this includes having your breast/butt covered by something sheer or see-through and nothing else under it.

Attendees

Attendees and Vendors are prohibited from taking pictures or video in any public area of the venue.

The FFF respects your privacy. However, recall that you are at a public event and you are your own best protection. FFF Productions, NELA, our host hotels, and our partner sponsoring groups and producers will not be liable in the event that your picture is taken.

Please note that there will be some authorized photographers present at this event. You should be aware of them if you do not want to appear in any picture. All authorized photographers will have a badge that they will display at all times, and they are instructed to obtain your explicit permission before taking any photograph (even if your face is obscured). These are the only photographers allowed.

Camera phones and video phones are everywhere but we’re asking you not to use them or any other camera in public space. Reports of your unauthorized photography or recording of any kind will result in your being removed from the event without refund.

It is proper procedure for authorized photographers to ask first before taking a photo. Harassing attendees for photos is forbidden. If someone pressures you for a photo, or takes an unauthorized photo “on the sly”; please report it to us immediately. If you think you have been photographed without your consent, you have the right to demand the film from the photographer or to check their digital files and delete the ones you are in.

If a photographer asks you to pose for a photo and you agree, be sure to sign a photo release form.

Attendees entering into agreements to be photographed privately are strongly encouraged to check the references of the person they are dealing with, to have someone they know and trust with them during any private photo shoot, and to resolve all issues of compensation and the rights to the images before beginning a private photo shoot.

Media

Members of the media are welcome at our event, but we ask that you obtain a press pass from us and that you follow certain rules as pertain to our attendees privacy and comfort.

The Fetish Fair Fleamarket has been making headlines since

1. Among the newspapers and periodicals that have featured us:

Houston Press, Atlanta Journal Constitution, The Boston Globe, Boston Herald, Tip Out Magazine, Boston Phoenix, Stuff @ Night, Creative Loafing, The Improper Bostonian, The Lawrence Eagle-Tribune, and Bay Windows. Almost every newspaper in the northeast carried an Associated Press Wire story about the event in 2000. Event creator and director Cecilia Tan has spoken about the fleamarket with WEEI radio’s Dennis and Callahan, on WFXT TV, and WFNX radio, among others.

To get on the press list/guest list for an upcoming event, Contact Us to make your request. Include what publication or media organization you represent, and we will follow up by email. We can discuss if you have any needs. We can help you find interview subjects, explain jargon, and much more.

When you arrive, check in at our main desk to get a press/photo pass (which you must wear) and sign a release of liability. You can also pick up the class schedule and other important information there.

Media Rules

- No Video Cameras in Public Space - Because of privacy concerns, no video cameras are allowed in event areas. We have had videographers on site in private rooms before, taping interview subjects in private. You may make these kinds of arrangements with us in advance.
- Signed Releases Are Required - You must provide your own release forms to your models.
- You must display your media badge at all times.
- Still-photography is allowed only of individuals who have consented to being photographed and who have signed a release. No crowd shots, no bystanders in the shot. If anyone thinks you took their picture (even if their face was not in it) without their consent, the image must be deleted or destroyed.
- No Blocking Traffic or Interference - Photographers, please be considerate when stopping to take photos in hallways where you might be blocking the flow of traffic or in vendor booths where you may be interfering with people's business.

Transgender Etiquette

There are many people who are transgender (Transsexual, Gender Queer, Crossdresser, Gender Variant, and more) in our community. People who are transgender and/or whose gender identity or expression does not conform to stereotypes of male or female often face discrimination and harassment, particularly when accessing public events and spaces, especially restrooms. To be inclusive and improve the quality of life for members of our community who are transgender and attending the FFF, please read and act upon the following:

Restrooms

One way of acknowledging the needs of all people regardless of their gender identity/expression is to support people in using the gender-designated restroom that they identify with. Many people face harassment in public bathrooms based on their perceived sex or gender identity; this can lead to anything from emotional discomfort, to arrest, or even murder. Regardless of which restroom you choose to use, please let everyone use the restroom of their choice in peace.

Pronouns

A person's external appearance may not match their internal gender identity. You cannot determine the gender or sex of someone by their physical body, voice, appearance or mannerisms. It's best to ask people "What pronoun do you prefer?" before using pronouns or gendered words. In group situations where you don't have an opportunity to ask someone what words they prefer, try using gender-neutral phrases like "the person in the red shirt," instead of "that woman or man."

Privacy and Respect For All Participants

Please respect the privacy and boundaries of people who are transgender, and do not ask unnecessary questions – your personal curiosity, while well-meaning, may be distressing to a person who identifies as transgender. If someone discloses they are transgender, do not “out” (expose the identity) of the person who is transgender to other people. The person who is transgender may feel comfortable coming out to you, but may not wish to be out to other people. Please treat everyone as you wish to be treated.
